ManyVids has many strengths, one being that our thousands of MV Stars portray and show an incredible range of what it means to be “sexy.” We get a taste of this awesome variety here in MV Mag #29 where we go from latex fetish fantasies to delicate gossamer dreams.

The Mag opens with Cyber Storm, an apt title for ariane_st_amour’s shoot due to her extreme online fame. Ms. Amour combines natural beauty, a love for latex, and a glorious 36J bust. Her look is inspired by anime and manga but we’re pretty sure she’s a sci-fi superheroine time traveler from the future, sent sent to aid us in sexual liberation.

Next, we keep things kinky and treat you with another black latex clad beauty as AstroDomina exerts her sensual sovereignty via her photoshoot, Domme Nation. In her Mag interview Astro tells us that she’s a naturally sexual and passionate person who feels that the BDSM scene was made for her—we guarantee you’ll be able to experience the passion that she’s referring to because it leaps off the page.

“Questionably a Disney princess,” is how Vera Sky described herself—and we agree there’s something regal about this enchanting vision. She shifts us into a softer mood with her aristocratic pic set, Royalty. Clad in a gauzy white outfit Vera seduces us with her imperial bearing, grace, and charm.

Carmen Valentina grants us a peek into her boudoir with her classic and classy photoshoot, Adore. Take in all that Carmen has to offer as she teases us in the shower, models some breath-taking lingerie, and reveals how old-school glamour is far from being passé.

CYBER STORM

FEATURING

1. How did you first discover latex?

I first saw and tried on latex in a shop, but I wasn't impressed—it was fragile, it doesn't shine in its natural state, it's expensive, I didn't like it right away. But then I got some latex gloves and loved them, I barely ever took them off because they felt so good.

2. What advice for success do you have for any women who want to enter the adult industry?

Be yourself, have fun, but don't stop pushing forward and working hard. It can take time to build a fan base and generate steady revenue.

3. You have the entire internet's attention for one day. What would you post? Why?

OMG! Probably a goofy photo of me telling people to stop looking at their phone or computer and go see some friends in real life.

4. One of the things you're known for are your remarkable breasts, what inspired you to get such an amazing size?

I was very inspired by manga. I really like the way they move and bounce, they're entertaining and beautiful. Of course, shopping and finding the right sized clothing is a little more tricky, but overall they don't cause me any issues.

5. What takes up too much of your time?

Nothing, I have way too much time, do you need some?

6. What's something you like to do the old-fashioned way?

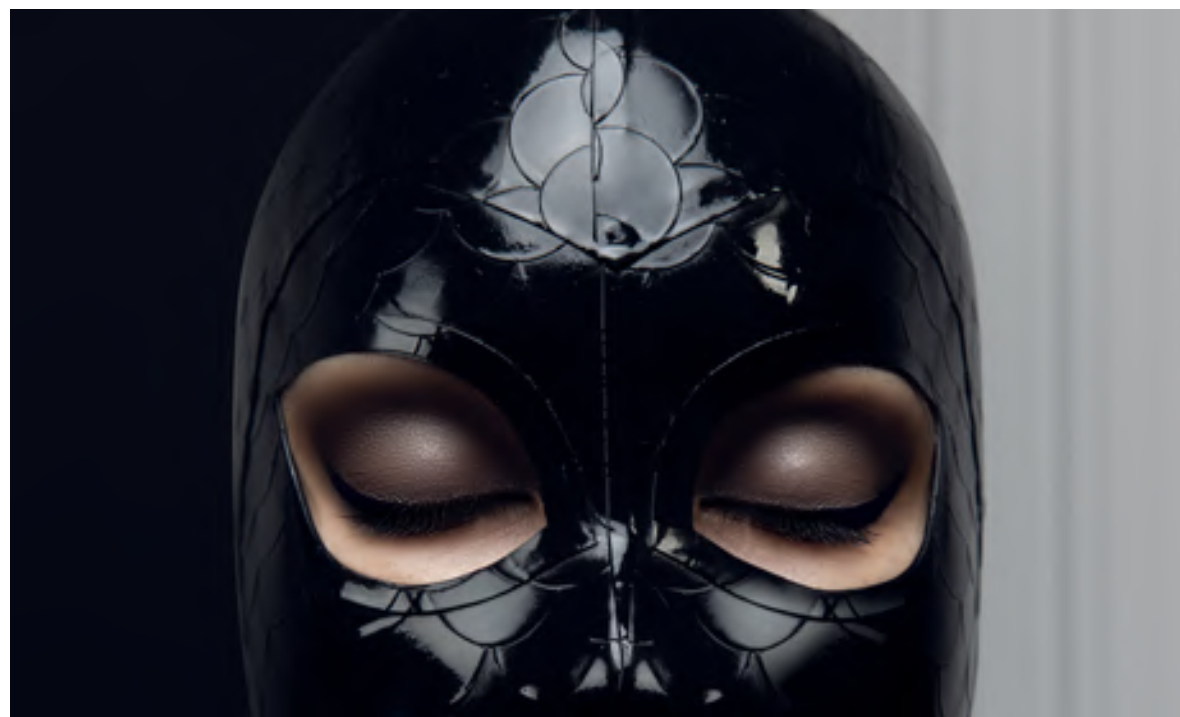

Meeting people :)

7. Where would you spend all your time if you could?

In my bed, I'm pretty much like a big cat.

8. What do you think is the secret to fantastic, mind-blowing sex?

Encouraging your partner to try new things and plenty of communication!

1. Which is the most sexual non-sexual act?

Ha! Great first question. Definitely eye contact. A very simple eye-contact sets the tone and mood for what is about to happen next...

2. What fad or trend do you hope comes back?

Fanny packs (slowly coming back) and flared jeans (I think they're also slowly coming back).

3. What's something a lot of people seem to get wrong or misunderstand about domming and working as a dom?

That dominatrices have sex with our subs or clients. This is a widespread misconception out there and needs to be debunked ASAP.

4. What's a part of your morning routine that helps you have a good day?

Drinking a glass of lemon water first thing in the morning and taking my supplements!

5. What's something you believe to be true that most people don't believe?

Meditation is a great anti-depressant.

6. Did you choose your career, or did your career choose you?

I have always been fascinated by the taboo elements of the sex and adult world, not to mention the beauty and brains that existed in it. The BDSM and fetish world made it so alluring for me to learn and discover. I'm a naturally sexually charged person—so the more I dove into it, the more I easily adapted into this world, as if I was made for this line of work. Given the right opportunities and keen effort, I was able to create a career as an online and offline dominatrix.

7. What qualities do you think make for a good submissive?

Open-mindedness, commitment, and a love for the art of BDSM.

8. Do you believe people are at the whim of destiny or that they can create it themselves?

People create their own destiny using their strengths and weaknesses. We are all responsible for making our own life-altering choices based on what we have, whether it's good, bad, or really ugly.

MV STARS' SEXY SELFIES - FOR YOUR EYES ONLY!

WITH

MillieMillz

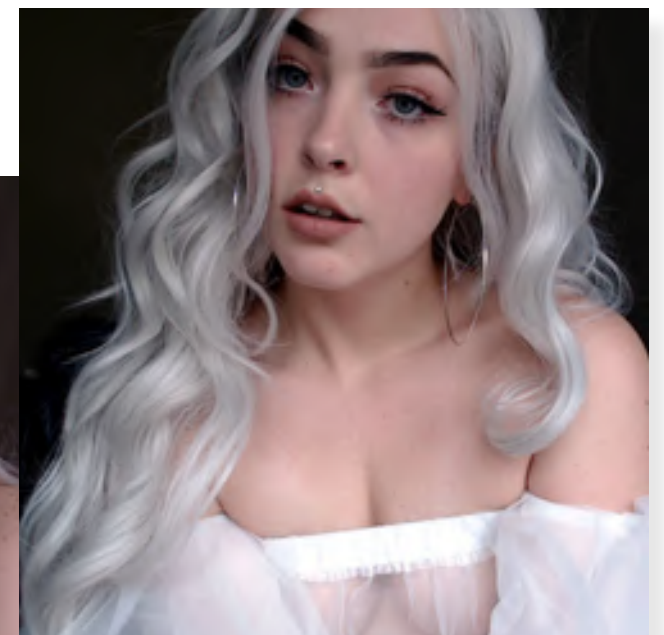

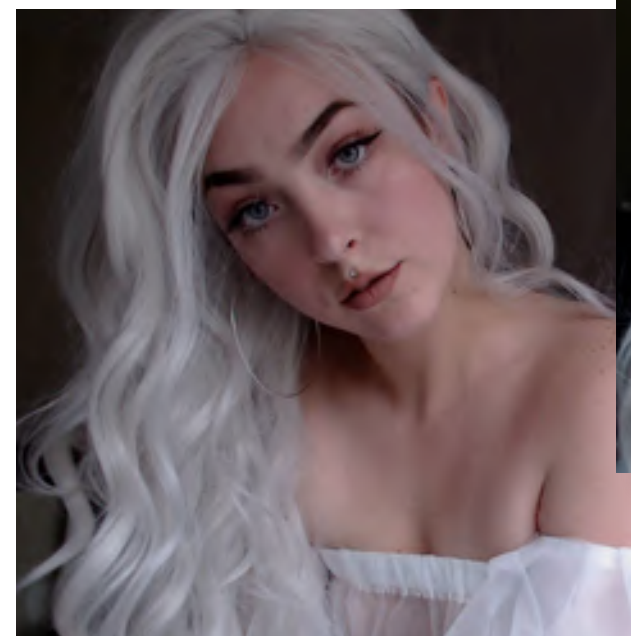

What's your favorite way to have orgasms? My favorite way to orgasm is definitely my Hitachi, I never go on high because I'm so sensitive! Also, when I have a butt plug in, the orgasm is so intense! My first time ever orgasming with my Hitachi and butt plug was a night to remember!

If you had to describe yourself in five words, what would they be? Eccentric, lovable, introvert, restless, and drifter.

What life goals do you have for the next five years? Moving back to Colorado, I love it there so much, and I can't think of any place I've lived where I was happier than Colorado. Also, I would love to fix my life a bit, before I started sex work I kind of messed my life up, I was super depressed and just had no direction in life. I didn't really care about anything but finding myself and finding what would make me happy. Living in a car traveling around put me in a bunch of debt so fixing that would be amazing.

What sex work goals do you have? Meeting all my favorite sex worker friends in person is a HUGE goal. There are so many people I admire and would love the chance to either work with them or just hang out with them—this would be my dream come true!

What's the most attractive and sexy thing you love in a date or a partner? Humor. If you can make me laugh, you have my heart. I don't care what you look like, dick size, anything like that. I also find that I'm super attracted to people that are super passionate about something they love; it could be work, music, video games, anything, and that passion turns me on.

If you won $100 Million, what would you buy first?

The first thing I'd buy would be a mansion for my Mom—I bet a lot of people say that huh? I'd also buy a private jet! If money weren't an issue, I would love to travel full time, and I'd have loads of fun by keeping a count of how many countries I can get creampie'd in, or something silly like that.

What's your fave dress up/cosplay/outfit that you've done for a vid, and what are some that you want to do in the future? My succubus outfit! It's so goth and cute! I have a few other costumes in the works right now, but one I'm thinking about starting is Vanellope from "Wreck-It Ralph!"

What's the best sound in the world? The sound of rain. Nothing beats a sleepy day spent smoking, playing video games, and listening to the rain outside

What's your favorite sexual position, your least fave, and what's a sex position you want do more of? My fave is just being completely bent in half! It hits my g-spot sooo hard, and my cervix too! A lot of girls wouldn't like that, but since I'm a huge masochist, it just totally drives me crazy. My least fave is reverse cowgirl, just because it doesn't really hit any of my spots, but a position I'd like to do more of is standing! I've done it a few times, and god is it hot when a guy can pick me up and use me like a toy, haha.

Finish this sentence: The secret to good sex is... To pay close attention to what makes your partner squirm!

How did you get into body mods, tattoos, and piercings?

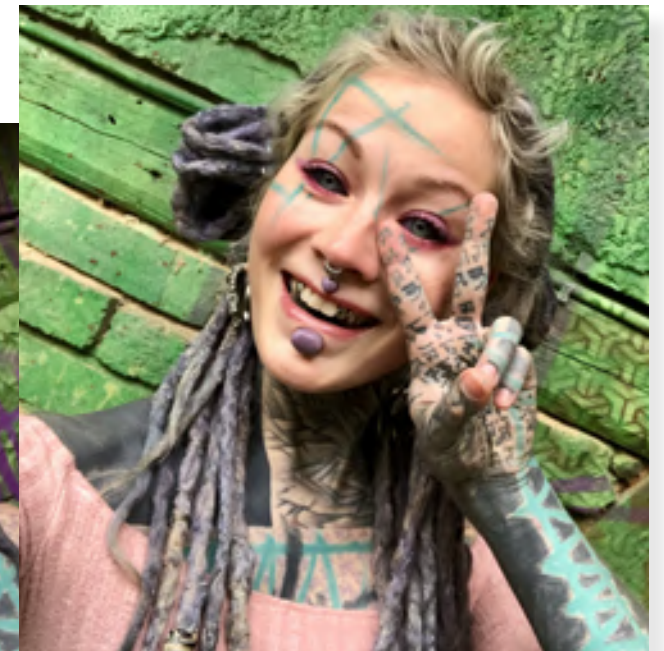

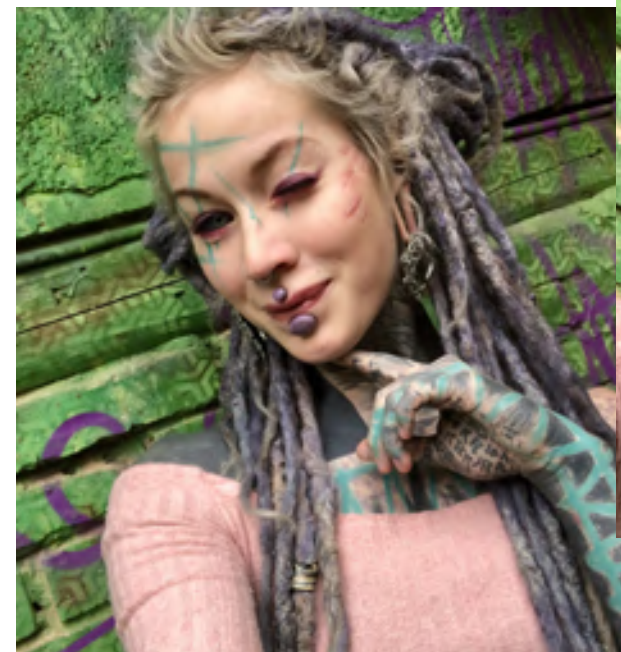

I always felt different compared to the standards of normal society. I struggled all the time with it so I wanted to give myself a unique look so I will never forget who I am and so that I will forever believe in MYSELF and in my own ideas and ideology.

Are you going to get any more body mods, tattoos, and piercings? As you can already see I am maybe the most heavily tattooed woman here on the MV platform and possibly on the whole Earth... so there is not much space left for any more tattoos on my body. Maybe on my face but I love my face the way it is, so I don't want to cover it completely. As well I have most of the "typical" body mods and just about everything pierced so I think I might be done :)

What always brings a smile to your face? MV Members joining my Crush Club, following me and hearting my vids, chatting with me on MV LIVE, or even better joining me on Live in a private room. All growth and career development on MV, as well as interacting with my fans, brings a smile to my face.

If someone wanted to get into BDSM what's something they should start with to ease themselves in? Ohoooo this is a good question. I life in a BDSM relationship 24/7 and with my work as a dominatrix and MV Star I can tell you the greatest secret: EDUCATE yourself, give trust and learn to trust, and if there is nobody who wants to share this BDSM adventure with you: GO TO A PROFESSIONAL. BDSM gave me a lot of strength and confidence. I can say it can do the same for you.

Do you believe in luck? NO! You must make your own luck. You have it in yourself. To be lucky means hard work, it means overcoming your boundaries, and it means fighting every day against your bad habits. It means getting back up even if you fall time and time again. It means to be respectful with the people around you and it means being respectful to yourself.

1. If you only had a minute or two to describe yourself, how would you sum yourself up?

I have energy. Lots of energy. And don't take me seriously, everything's funny to me, I laugh too much and will eat the food off your plate without asking. Questionably a Disney princess.

2. If you could move anywhere in the world, where would you go and why there?

I love the cold! Cold weather activities, clothes, and sports! I played hockey and figure skated for a few years growing up, I like to think I was born to be on ice. So, for me, it would have to be somewhere like Russia or Switzerland—just pray that I don't get eaten by a bear!

3. What's your favorite part of sex?

My favorite part of sex is everything leading up to the actual intercourse, so not just foreplay... but the date, the long anxious drive home where we both have to act like we don't want to rip each other's clothes off, and the excitement I feel picking out lingerie to wear under my dress. For me to have sex, I personally have to feel very connected to the person, so going out and having a good time with a man really gets me going.

4. What are your hobbies and passions outside of the adult industry?

Living in Washington, DC, is like living in a time capsule. There's so much history and so much to learn and see. Do you know how many times I've casually seen the president while I was grabbing a coffee! But no... really... I love seeing the monuments and museums, but not just looking and staring, I love to learn the story and importance behind everything and how it helped shaped the country to what it is today.

I'd like to see people of all shapes, sizes, & gender representing our industry.

5. What was fun to do once, but you'll never do it again?

Anal.

6. What's the biggest change you'd like to see in the adult industry?

More inclusivity and positivity. Being bi-racial and curvy, I've experienced my share of discrimination from some of the biggest companies in the biz. Being told I needed to lose 2 dress sizes, that my body would be too hard to shoot because I have stretch marks, that my look doesn't "sell." I'd like to see people of all shapes, sizes, and gender representing our industry because our industry is made up of every kind of person you could think of. Not one idealistic stereotype.

7. What would be a perfect one-night stand be for you?

A man opens his wallet, says take it all, he leaves, and then he never talks to me again.

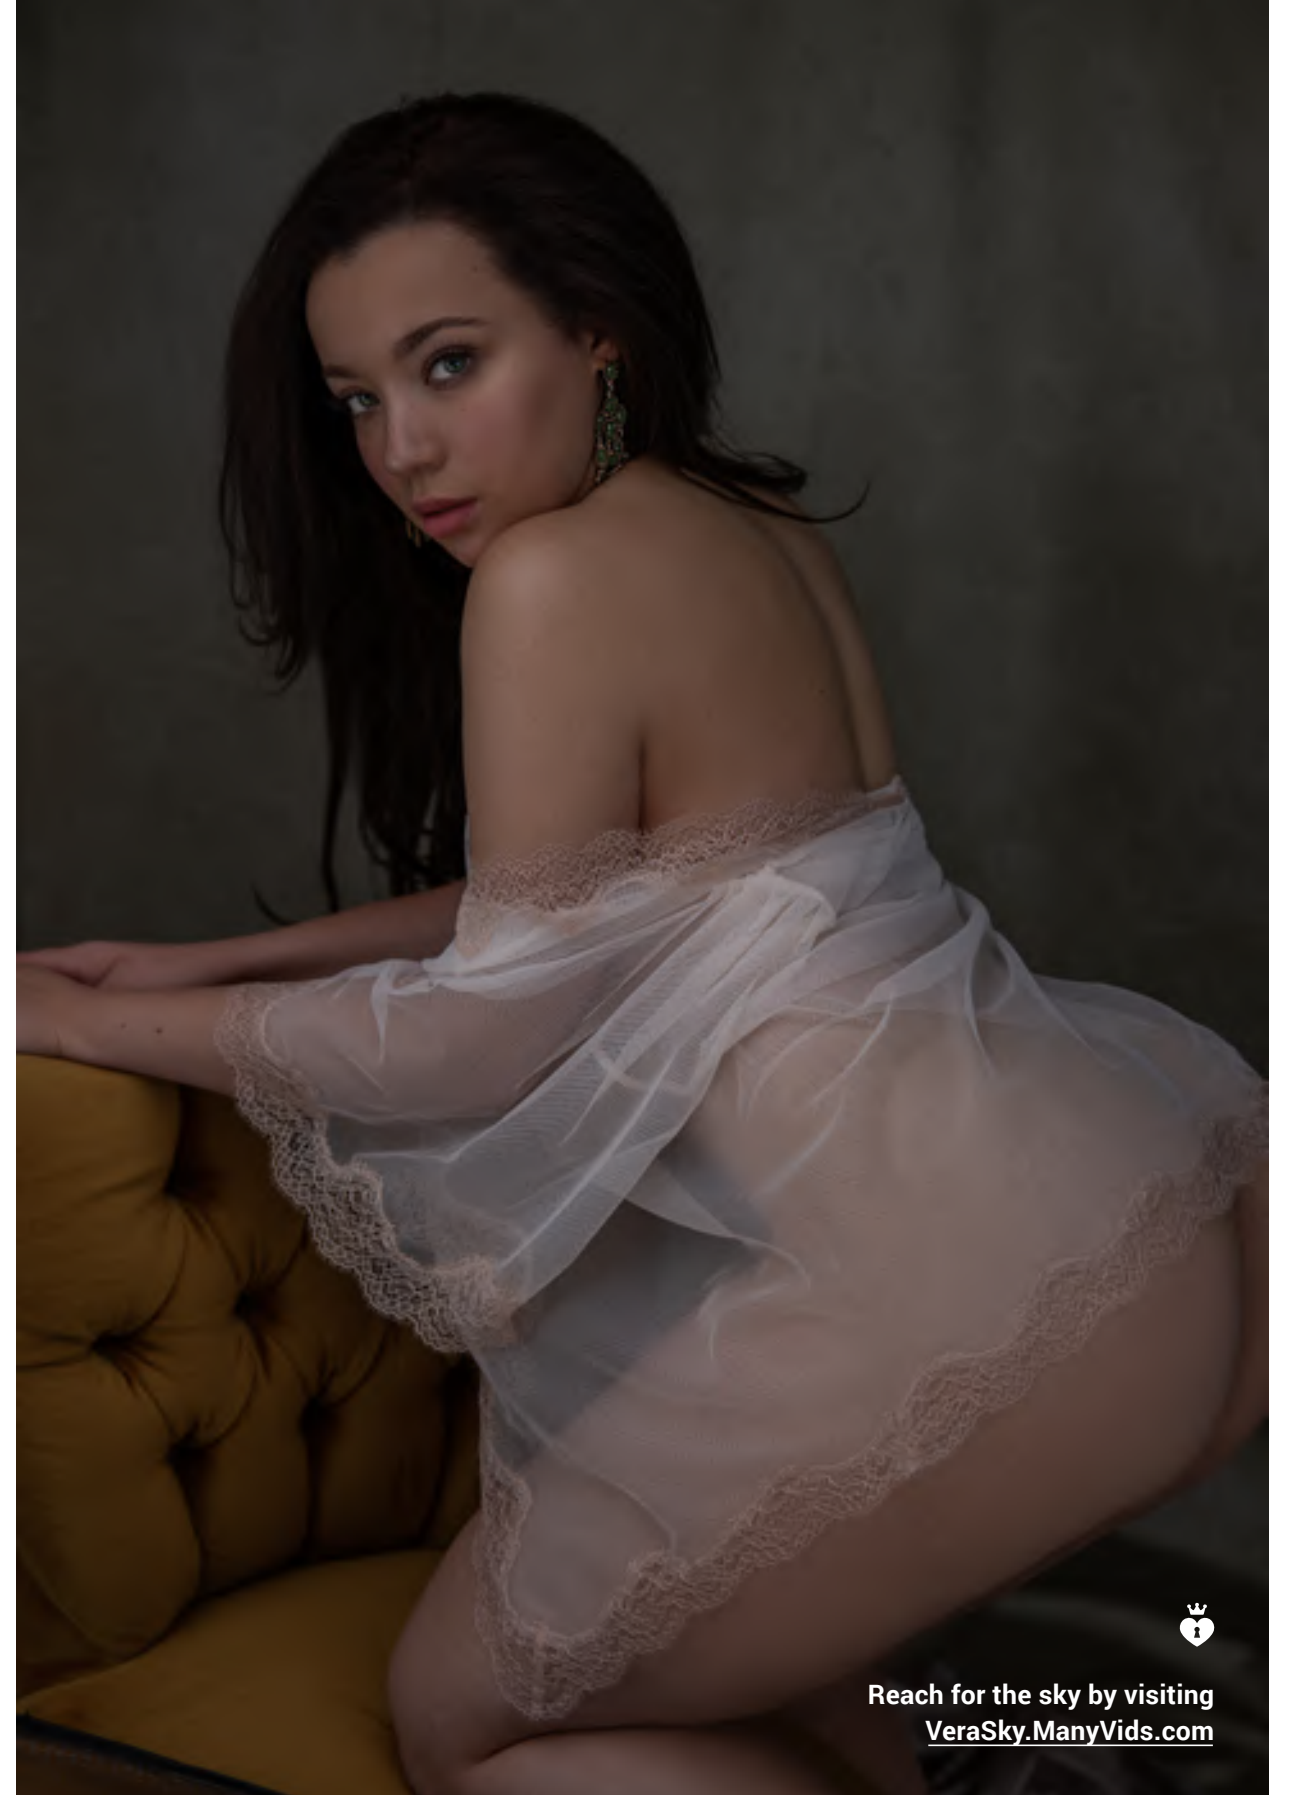

8. Do you get excited or scared when meeting new people?

Excited! I love making new friends, I always tell people to never be afraid to approach me. I love everyone and my personality is so deep and complex I can get along and find common ground with almost any kind of person that approaches me!

9. If you could plan a dream date, what would it entail?

To be honest, a perfect dream date would be nothing cliché: so no fancy restaurant, no movie, no walking through a park, too romantic for me... blah! I like to see where the day takes us, that's the best. But if it ends up being a rainy day in DC, I guess I could say "museums and chill" doesn't sound too shabby at all!

1. If you could make an MV vid with anyone, who would it be and why?

I would love to do a fetish scene with William Moulton Marston—he was the creator of Wonder Woman, and he was also a psychiatrist that explored dominance and submission. He was kinky and would bondage up his wife and girlfriend together all the time.

2. What’s something your fans would be surprised to discover about you?

I once masturbated in the public library bathroom. I was so horny that I couldn’t wait to get home and do it. It was pretty fun. I also had sex in a movie theatre and a public sauna (don’t do that, I almost passed out from heat exhaustion).

3. With your time and experience in the adult industry, what are some developments that you’ve liked, and what are some you consider negative?

I do like how there are so many platforms for models and performers like me to use. Back in the day there was pretty much just camming, and not all girls want to be just a cam girl. Talent would have to rely on bigger companies to hire us, now we can literally “hire” ourselves and make our own money, instead of always relying on someone else to hire us for productions.

4. What do you wish you had more time for?

I wish I had more time to paint. It takes me forever to finish a painting, because I get caught up with work, then at the end of the day I pass out on the couch, and completely forget to paint. I need just to stop procrastinating and make time to do it. For the fans that don’t know me, I love oil painting, and I went to college for illustration.

5. What creators do you consider influential on your own vids and content?

I took a beginner's film class years ago in community college, and I just try to follow the basics of what my then teacher taught me. He helped film Angelina Jolie's first big movie, "FoxFire."

6. Would you rather know the world is coming to an end or be completely oblivious to it?

I don't wanna know. I think I rather just be oblivious to it, cause then I would overthink everything and freak out too much. I would rather just keep living the way I am now.

7. What's something you find attractive that others may think is a bit weird?

I like it when guys have a cute little firm butt. NOT big butts, I want a small cute one on a masculine guy, I like grabbing it while the man mounts me in missionary position.

8. Would you rate yourself as a "doer" or a "thinker" when it comes to making decisions or trying something new?

A thinker, because I always have something on my mind. I actually write down all my thoughts, the problem is that I never get a chance to do them because I get busy and forget. I need a personal assistant to yell at me so I can get more things accomplished... any volunteers?
